

PRESS RELEASE

July 2012

Samantha Cameron pays tribute to TRACKS autism on its 10th Anniversary.

Samantha Cameron hosted an evening reception at No 10 Downing Street to help children, staff, parents and supporters of TRACKS autism celebrate 10 years of the specialist early years centre's service in Hertfordshire.

The centre is based in Stevenage and was recently awarded "Outstanding" by Ofsted who said its provision was exceptional.

Over 100 guests attended the reception. These included actress Jane Asher, Baroness Howarth, Lady Hobson and Barry Norman as well as TRACKS' co-founders Judy Coad, Nan Cannon Jones and Juliet Jameison.

End

Images available on request

TRACKS autism

Tel: 07955 918248

www.tracks-autism.org.uk

mikeshaw.tracksautism@gmail.com